Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Monday 08 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mainly dry and cloudy on Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly cloudy with some patchy light rain, this mainly in the west. Some clear periods developing across the north and Northern Isles at times. Light winds.

Tuesday:
Dull and cloudy with some patchy drizzle across south and central Scotland, mainly dry and somewhat brighter further north. Strengthening southerly winds bring heavy rain eastwards in the evening.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Remaining unsettled. Dry and bright in the east on Wednesday, but rain spreading into the west later. Cold with blustery showers Thursday and Friday, wintry on high ground. Breezy throughout.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.